GOOD NEWS
Tracts

“And you, who were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made alive together with him, having forgiven us all our trespasses.”

COLOSSIANS 2:13

Dear Friend and Partner in Gospel Ministry,

When we stop to honestly consider our lives, we know we are sinners. On the surface, we may deceive ourselves into thinking that our good deeds outweigh our bad ones; or that we are not so bad after all. Even still, there remains a still, small voice reminding us that the rules we place on others, we often fail to adhere to ourselves. Our indignation in response to the unrighteousness we see in others often stems from recognizing our own guilt. Because, deep down, we know we're sinners, even if we try to convince ourselves otherwise.

The good news of the gospel is that Christ died for us while we were still sinners (Rom. 5:8). The righteousness we've transgressed, the failure to uphold the standards God has set, the works of the flesh—all of these things have been borne on Christ our Savior as surely as he died and was made alive again. And so, each of our sins have been buried with Christ so that we might walk in newness of life with him. God has forgiven every trespass—yes! But even more, God has made us alive—new and reborn—with Christ. This is the good news of the gospel.

Good News Tracts provides you with resources to help you share the good news of the gospel with others. Our hope is that through these tools, your friends, neighbors, coworkers, and those whom you encounter on a day-to-day basis might wake up from the slumber of their sin and participate in the life-giving, transgression-forgiving, Spirit-empowered reality promised to all sinners who have been alienated from God by their sin.

May these resources help spur others to new life in him.

Every blessing in Christ,

Good News Tracts
